Therapeutic Behavioral Services (TBS)

*Referred thru Y-TIC meeting

Medi-Cal eligible youth ages 3-21 years old

Short-term (average 90 days), intensive, behaviorally-focused services that prevent the need for WRAP or residential/institutional care OR support a step-down from residential/institutional care. Services focus on 1 target behavior at a time that is jeopardizing the client's placement. Services are provided up to daily (average 4-6 hours/week for 3-5 months) in the home, school, and community. Interventions are individually customized and skills are transferred to caregivers. Services do not include case management or transportation.

Full-Service Partnership (FSP)

*Referred thru Y-TIC meeting

Medi-Cal eligible children/youth ages 6-21 years old

Intensive mental health treatment and case management focused on stabilizing children/youth who have been, or are at risk of, hospitalization, involvement with juvenile justice or child welfare. At least 3 services are provided per week by a multi-disciplinary team. Services take place in the client's home, school, field, etc. Includes 24/7 on-call support. Services include housing support and recreational/academic/vocational support.

Transition Age Youth (TAY) FSP

*Referred thru Y-TIC meeting

Medi-Cal eligible TAY ages 16-25 years old

Intensive mental health treatment and case management focused on stabilizing youth who have been, or are at risk of, hospitalization, involvement with juvenile justice or child welfare. At least 3 services are provided per week by a multi-disciplinary team in addition to ancillary services for 12-18 months. Services take place in the client's home, school, field, etc. Includes 24/7 on-call support. Additional services may include independent living skills, housing support, vocational and educational support. Program includes a sub-contract with First Place for Youth with access to contracted housing slots and associated services.

Intensive In Home (IHH) Services

*Referred thru Y-TIC meeting

Medi-Cal eligible TAY ages 15 to 25 years old

Intensive mental health treatment and case management services focused on stabilizing youth who are at risk of hospitalization, involvement with juvenile justice/child welfare, securing stable housing and successfully transitioning to adulthood. Generally 2 face-to-face contacts per week in addition to ancillary services for 12-18 months. Services take place in the client's home, school, field, etc. Includes 24/7 on-call support. Program is intended to be a step-down from TAY FSP or a holding place for cases awaiting TAY FSP opening.

Wraparound Services (Wrap)

*Referred thru Solano County Inter-agency Committee

Medi-Cal eligible youth ages 6-18 years old

Intensive mental health treatment, case management and stabilization for up to 18 months for children/youth at risk of residential placement OR when stepping down from residential placement. Referrals made through Inter-agency by SW or PO. Services occur up to daily in the home, school, and community. In addition to intensive mental health treatment and case management the following services are provided: supervised visitation, support network building, and access to a 24/7 support line. Focus is on the stabilization and maintenance of highly complex family systems.

Residential Placements

*Referred thru Solano County Inter-agency Committee

Children/youth ages 6-21 years old

Children/youth who cannot be stabilized in the community or home may be placed in residential placements within Solano county, or out of county. Placements vary in terms of level of care and mental health services provided. Referrals are made through Inter-agency Committee by CWS Social Worker or Probation Officer. Please note that Solano County Mental Health does not place clients in residential programs. Mental Health services provided for youth in residential programs may be funded in part by the MHP.
